The federal Judiciary intends to procure treatment services for federal defendants and persons under supervision using Blanket Purchase Agreements. Generally, the procurement of these services occurs during the summer months; however, procurement may occur at any time throughout the year depending on the needs of the district. Solicitations for Blanket Purchase Agreements may be issued for districts in the United States and territories, including Alaska, Hawaii, District of Columbia, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico and U.S. Virgin Islands.

Required Treatment Services may include NAICS codes

621420 – outpatient mental health and substance abuse centers,

623220 – residential mental health and substance abuse treatment,

561611 – polygraph services, 621999 – all other miscellaneous ambulatory health care services,

624190 – other individual and family services,

These are not limited to: urine collection, counseling (to include mental health, substance use, and or/sex offense treatment), physical examinations, outpatient and inpatient detoxification, medication, short and long term residential treatment, and transportation. These are examples of the types of services that may be procured. The solicitation for Blanket Purchase Agreements would identify the specific services and requirements the offeror would be required to provide.

PLACE OF PERFORMANCE

The United States and territories, including Alaska, Hawaii, District of Columbia, Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, Puerto Rico and U.S. Virgin Islands.
